A Message from Fr. Pat.....

Catechism of the Catholic Church #1285

Baptism, the Eucharist, and the sacrament of Confirmation together constitute the sacraments of Christian initiation, whose unity must be safeguarded. It must be explained to the faithful that the reception of the sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. For by the sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence, they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed.

This Sunday we have the honor, privilege, and pleasure of experiencing at the 11:00 AM Sunday Mass, the celebration of the sacrament of confirmation on two of our young people. Isaiah Andrew Kemp and Marcelino Donaldson-Quepons. Bishop Wack is the celebrant at the Mass, concelebrated by myself. The bishop will confer the sacrament of confirmation on these fine young gentlemen, thereby completing the process of their Christian initiation.

Anytime we can celebrate a sacrament at our parish it is a time of extreme joy, especially when we have the honor of having our Bishop here celebrating with us. I would like to thank all those who have taught Isaiah and Marcelino throughout their years of formation. And I would like to remind them that their Christian formation does not end here, it is a lifelong process. They are called as followers of Jesus Christ to spread new of the Gospel to the whole world; and to do that they need to keep expanding their knowledge of the scripture and the teaching of Jesus Christ.

I would ask that you all keep them in your prayers as they begin a new leg of their journey as being disciples of Jesus Christ.

May God Bless the Fine Young Men!

Fr. Pat

Behold the Lamb of God, 60 Questions and Answers on The Mystery of the Eucha- rist

What is the Eucharist?

The Holy Eucharist is the supreme gift Jesus came to offer us—the gift of his very self and of his work of salvation. In short, the Eucharist is the sacred memorial of Christ's death and Resurrection. When the Eucharist is celebrated, that central event of our salvation truly becomes present, and our redemption is carried out. So important is this gift of himself that Jesus offered the sacrifice of his Body and Blood on the Cross and returned to the Father only after he left us the Eucharist as a way for us to really share in his sacrifice as if we had been present.
