Dear Family of God

Here at St. Joseph parish, we benefit from those generations that have come before us, their selfless dedication to praying for, and the building up and maintaining of the parish. When you look around our parish property, you must marvel at what we have inherited from those faithful servants of God that came before us. There are many current parishioners that have left their mark here at the parish, I am thinking specifically of the construction of our parish hall, the newest building added to our parish facilities.

As we express gratitude to those in the past, it is the time for us to look forward and to forge forward, to build for a brighter future at St. Joseph. As we embrace the concept of making an annual commitment to financially support the parish, it is important to talk about what we will be doing with the additional financial blessing the Lord will give us. So to simplify the discussion I have broken the focus into three categories.

Worship and Formation: We need to always keep our focus on our relationship with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; though our celebration of the Mass and ongoing Christian formation for all ages. Expanding our spiritual celebrations by having quarterly spirit nights, guest minister programs and extra special liturgical celebrations. Expand current formation programs to allow more people to attend and offer a diversity of topics.

Mission Outreach: To build on our existing ministries for the poor, the hungry and the homeless. To pair with ministries that have a complementary mission to the ones we have here at St. Joseph. To implement a parish tithe program, where the parish will give 10% of the income we receive, to like minded ministries and programs.

Renew and Maintain: We need to focus on the maintenance of our property. We have been blessed with a new roof and interior painting of our church; we need to continually care for all our buildings here at the parish. We need projects to renew certain areas, specifically the kitchen in the parish hall. But we must also focus on rebuilding our hurricane savings account back to its former level.

I pray everyone will joyfully support and actively participate in these initiatives, so that we can all come together as committed disciples of Jesus Christ for the benefit of St. Joseph parish and our shared mission. We pray that those parishioners that have faithfully gone before us can look down and smile at our efforts.

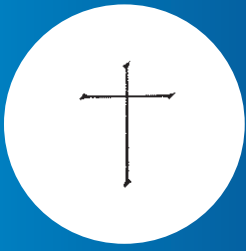

May God's blessing be upon us all.

Fr. Pat LaPointe

“Amen is our Yes to God’s generosity to and through us. By our own serving and giving, we are powered by God’s love to change the world.”
