A Message from Fr. Pat.....

Planning for the Future

January 2023, the parish's hurricane savings account was at $250,000, today the balance is $39,656.41. So, I am sure you are asking what happened to the $230,000, let me show you how we have gotten to this point. This is the break down of what was spent from the account.

Insurance Deductible for roof repair $90,000

2023-2024 Property and Liability (P&L) insurance premium $84,094.01, part of the total $126,141.99 annual premium

2024-2025 Property and Liability (P&L) insurance premium $36,252.58, part of the total $76,248.08 annual premium

We must thank those people who donated to the hurricane saving account the brought it up to $250,000, or else we would not have been able to pay our deductible for the beautiful renovation of our church, or to pay the insurance premium for the last two years.

Now we need to rebuild the hurricane savings account, which is only used to pay for repairs of damage caused by natural disasters (hurricane, Tornado, Flooding) and also if need be, to help pay the annual P&L insurance premium.

To help focus on replenishing the hurricane savings account, in your donation envelopes you will now have envelopes for donating to the hurricane savins account. We are also getting the online giving page updated to allow donations be directed to the hurricane savings account.

Hopefully with the focus on the hurricane savings account, we can rebuild it back to it's former level.

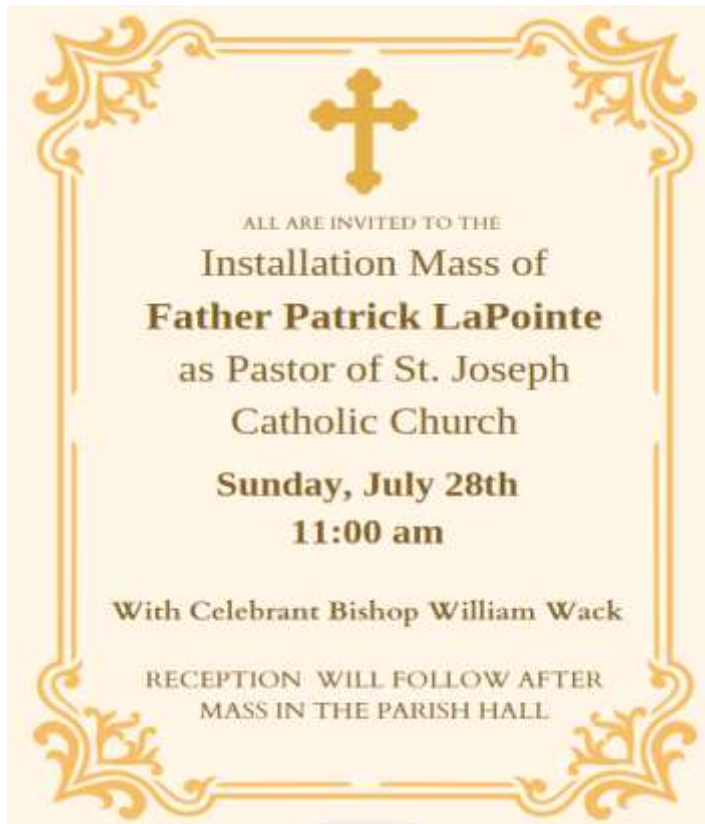

Praying you have a blessed week

Fr. Pat

AMEN GENEROSITY

God's Possession

In him, you also.. were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory." This is one of the ultimate principles of Christian stewardship – that we are God's. We belong to Him. Our life is through Him, with Him, and in Him as the priest says each Mass that leads to our "great Amen." We ourselves belong wholly to God. All that we give is from Him, and in every way that we love others throughout our lives is meant to be for His glory.
