

THE EUCHARIST AS HOLY COMMUNION

Why do we have to go to Mass?

We owe God worship. As a prayer at Mass states, "It is truly right and just, out duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks." And we must worship God the way he desires. This is a crucial point: When it come to our worship of God, what's most important is not our personal preferences but what God himself has revealed about how we are to worship him. And as we've seen, Jesus commanded the Apostles to celebrate the Eucharist as the central act of worship. As the US bishops have explained, "To worship God on Sundays, then, is not the mere observance of a rule but the fulfillment of our identity, of who we are as members of the Body of Christ. Participation in the Mass is an act of love."

AMEN GENEROSITY

From Above

"All good giving and every perfect gift is from above." (Ja 1:17). Our gracious Lord has already made every gift that you and I have ever given, and ever will give. All our giving has a beginning in God. We are really stewards of God's generosity. God gives. We share a piece of God's heart when give from our own hearts. This sharing of God's generosity makes our lives holy and gives us great purpose. That is the "Amen" in Amen Generosity. Lord, you are so good and generous to me and through me to change the world and glorify God. I only need to say Amen.
