Gospel Reflection from the Seasonal Missalette

September 28

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The rich man was very rich. He didn't just wear fine linen, but garments of purple, normally worn only by royalty, for purple dye was very expensive. He didn't just enjoy sumptuous food occasionally; he enjoyed it every single day. The poor man was very poor. Starving, he longed for just scraps of food. He had untreated sores, no doubt exacerbated by his poor diet and squalid living conditions. The two lived in opposite worlds, separated by only a simple door. But after they die, their worlds switch. The poor man, Lazarus, lies tenderly in the bosom of Abraham while the rich man suffers in torment. These brothers in faith (each recognizes Abraham as a father) are separated by an uncrossable chasm. For his entire life on earth, the rich man turned his back on his brother, when even just a little kindness, a little generosity, just a brief reach across that separation could have joined them together after death. Now it is too late. But not for us. The bridge we build to our neighbor in need today is the bridge that carries us across the chasm tomorrow. What bridge will you build this week to share what you have with someone in need?

Welcoming New Members to the Pastoral Advisory Council (PAC)

This year, we are happy to announce the new members of the Pastoral Advisory Council (PAC) who have graciously volunteered to join this ministry. All members, both current and new, have committed to serving as the consultative body for our parish, providing guidance to Fr. Pat on matters concerning the spiritual and temporal well-being of our community. They will assist our pastor in identifying the parish's needs and in creating a pastoral plan to address those needs.

Billy Brown	Melinda Scollin
Deedee Green	Josh Rosas
Angela Anderson	Bill Ramos
Donn Milton	Marian Maxey
Leo Bowersox	Martha Koontz
Val Cortesa-Smith	Sam Horton
Curtis Derbigny	Rafael Garza

Fortunately, we currently have enough volunteers in this ministry. The parishioners who have been suggested as potential members of the Pastoral Advisory Council will be our back up members if needed.

Upcoming Meeting

The first meeting is scheduled for next Wednesday, October 1st, at 6:30 PM in the parish hall. The meeting is open to all our parishioners to attend, so save the date!

FUNDRAISING VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are looking for volunteers for our Gospel Night (October 11th) and International Food festival (November 8th) events. If interested please contact Marge at (850) 436-6461 or email at office@stjoseph.ptdiocese.org.
