Gospel Reflection from the Seasonal Missalette

November 2, 2025

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

On this day when we remember in a special way all those who have died, let us also reflect on the theme of this Jubilee Year: Pilgrims of Hope. Our lives are a pilgrimage and because of our faith in a God who loves us, forgives us, and saves us, we are able to remain ever hopeful: for ourselves and for all. We are hopeful because we believe that our pilgrimage through life does not end in death but in eternal life with the Lord. To those who cannot see past this life here on earth, death is truly an "affliction," an "utter destruction" (Wisdom 3:2-3). Though we surely grieve at the passing of loved ones, for we feel a tremendous sense of loss, we console each other with our trust that God has prepared a home for our loved ones and for us and will raise us all on the last day. This gives us hope, precious hope, which "does not disappoint" (Romans 5:5). We do not know, we cannot know, what the future holds for us, but our hope in eternal life in God's kingdom can reassure us as we struggle through the tragedies and hardships of life, particularly the suffering and grief that come with death itself. How does hope help you cope with pain, suffering, and grief?
